

David M. Balcirak

Professional Experience:

David M. Balcirak is Vice President and National Construction Manager of SCS Energy, a division within SCS Engineers. He is responsible for the construction management of biogas to Renewable Natural Gas facilities. A sample of current and completed projects with SCS Energy include:

- Construction of a 2,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Pass Christian, Mississippi.
- 3,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Brevard County Landfill in Cocoa, Florida.
- 6,500 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant Manchester, New Jersey.
- 2,500 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey.
- 6,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable gas plant in Blenheim, Ontario, Canada.
- 4,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Winter Haven, Florida.
- 6,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Roseboro, North Carolina.
- 10,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable gas plant in Northville, Michigan.
- 8,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Oberlin, Ohio.
- 9,000 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Lowellville, Ohio.
- 6,500 SCFM landfill gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Manassas, Virginia.
- 4,000 SCFM natural gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Lansing, Michigan.
- 9,000 SCFM natural gas to pipeline quality renewable natural gas plant in Ferris, Texas.

During his 37-year career in construction management, he has supervised the construction of nearly 2 billion dollars in construction projects over multiple sectors of industries, including Renewable Natural Gas facilities, wastewater treatment plants, water purification plants, industrial facilities, commercial facilities, and public works projects.